REAL ESTATE MARKET SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Mrs. Sherman Sells Land
Adjacent to Lyric Theatre.

Louis Korf Buys 100 Feet on Main Street, Opposite Goodsell Street—Vipcent Brothers Purchase Fine Plot.

That confidence is returning and business is improving, shown by the announcement of number of important real estate transactions which have taken place in this city during the past week. The most notable transfer of property was the sale of seventy-five feet of land on Main street adjoining the new Lyric theatre, by Mrs. Henry M. Sherman. The purchaser is now a resident of East Forchester, N. Y., but intends to remove to this city. This land is on Main street at the foot of High street and it is considered to be growing more valuable every day, owing to the improvements which are now going on in the neighborhood. Since the erection of the Stratfield hotel, shrewd observers have prophesied that values on Main street from Center Hill street to North avenue would increase more rapidly than in any other part of this city.

Another sale of Main street property took place yesterday. Mrs. John J. Ryburn and John H. Clappett sold to Louis Korf one hundred feet of land on Main street, opposite Goodsell street. Mr. Korf is a member of the board of health and is in the grocery business at the corner of North and Madison avenues. He intends to erect a large building of concrete blocks on the land he has purchased.

Vincent Bros., the coal dealers and grocery men on State street in the West End, purchased a building lot seventy feet in width on the northeast corner of State street and Bassick avenue, yesterday. It is across the street from their present place of business and close by the new West End Post Office. The property was owned by Joshua Butler, who secured it three years ago from the Bassick estate in an exchange for property in New York city. It is reported that Vincent Bros. intend to build a business block on the land.

Frederick J. Banks has sold to Mrs. George F. Hatheway a very fine residence site on the northeast corner of Clinton and Beechwood avenues. The lot is eighty feet wide and one hundred and eighty-three feet deep. Clinton avenue is eighty feet wide and is considered one of the finest residential streets in Bridgeport. It is said that Mrs. Hatheway intends to build a handsome residence on the lot and make it her home.

About one year ago Mr. Banks sold a lot seventy-five feet front on Clinton avenue, opposite the lot sold to Mrs. Hatheway, to S. Loewith, the real estate dealer. Mr. Loewith intends to build in June. He will erect a large house with all of the modern improvements which will be in keeping with the other fine residences on the avenue.

FOUR MILLION DOLLARS GIVEN AWAY THIS YEAR

By a Corporation Doing Business in This City, a Sum, Which if Equally Divided Would Give Each Man, Woman and Child in Bridgeport Over Forty Dollars.

We publish to-day an annual statement of one of America's largest corporations. The figures given are so large that the average mind does not readily grasp their meaning. Twenty million dollars is an amount few of our readers will ever see or possess, and yet the statement referred to shows that the surplus of this corporation, above all liabilities, is over twenty million dollars, or in other words, if its business was closed up, all contracts fulfilled, all obligations met, there would still remain over twenty million dollars.

The total value of its real estate, bonds, mortgages and other resources are over two hundred and thirty-six millions. This corporation pays all its obligations in full, and frequently adds 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, even 30 per cent. to what it agrees to pay in settling its obligations, or five per cent. additional for each five years that its contract has been in force. Hence many people or business firms, without obligation, pay more than they agree to pay? You will say very few, but in 1909 the corporation referred to will give away voluntarily, without any obligation whatsoever, over four million dollars to the people with whom it does business.

Many people in Bridgeport have had most satisfactory business relations in the past and will in future. The Bridgeport Office of this corporation has over twenty thousand contracts on its books with the people in this locality. In many cases the relations have been continuous for over thirty years. The business is continually increasing and if every one knew the advantages of doing their business in this line with the corporation referred to, there would be little left for its competitors.

The local office in the Meigs building, corner of Main street and Fairfield avenue is centrally located and is an up-to-date office with every particular for its competitors. Visitors are always welcome.
